

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

For more information contact
Becky Ryan, Senior Proposal Coordinator
rryan@rossbar.com; 314.918.8383 x 107

ROSS & BARUZZINI EXPANDS ARCHITECTURAL GROUP

November 29, 2006, St. Louis, Missouri — Ross & Baruzzini, Inc., a leader in engineering and technology special systems design, today announced the addition of three architects to accommodate the increased number of projects requiring specialized architectural design and drafting. Jim Stotlar, Project Architect, Suki Majesky, Architecture Project Manager, and Alison Baillargeon, Architectural Drafter/Designer, have joined Ross & Baruzzini to work on a variety of new projects including the renovation of the Chase Park Plaza, Evans Army Community Hospital at Fort Carson, Colorado, the dental clinic at Fort Myer, and the Research Reactor Center for the University of Missouri-Columbia.

About Ross & Baruzzini, Inc.

Founded in 1953, Ross & Baruzzini, Inc. has been ranked as one of the top 50 engineering and architectural firms in the United States by Building Design and Construction Magazine. The company specializes in the planning, design and engineering of commercial and institutional facilities for the transportation, healthcare, higher education and government markets. Ross & Baruzzini has been known as a leader in technology consulting and engineering for more than twenty years and is located at 6 South Old Orchard, St. Louis, Missouri 63119. The company has regional offices in Houston, Texas, and Miami, Florida. The company may be reached at 314.918.8383 or at www.rossbar.com.

###