FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*ROSS & BARUZZINI RANKED AS TOP E/A FIRM

Saint Louis, MO – January 4, 2011 – Ross & Baruzzini, a globally recognized leader in engineering, technology planning and design and consulting, is pleased to announce that it has maintained its ranking among the top Engineering/Architecture firms on the Giants 300 list. Ross & Baruzzini was honored as a top E/A firm for 2009 by Building Design + Construction and was ranked under seven different categories in the annual report.

In addition to the top E/A ranking, Ross & Baruzzini was also ranked in the following categories: government revenue, university revenue, international revenue, BIM revenue and reconstruction revenue. With nearly 20% of the firm's staff members being certified as LEED AP, Ross & Baruzzini was also recognized under the LEED AP listing.

The Giants 300 is an annual survey of the country's largest AEC firms in the nonresidential building industry. Companies are ranked based on the volume of commercial, institutional, industrial, and multifamily residential building work completed the previous year.
