Ross & Baruzzini Makes MEP Giants 100 List

Saint Louis, MO – November 4, 2011 – Ross & Baruzzini, a globally recognized engineering and technology planning, design and consulting firm is listed as a 2011 MEP Giant according to Consulting-Specifying Engineer Magazine. The MEP Giants program lists the top 100 mechanical, electrical, plumbing and fire protection engineering firms in the United States and are awarded based on their diverse portfolios in the engineering industry and their drive to perform.

Craig Toder, President of the firm, proudly accepted the award on October 12, 2011 at the Swissotel in Chicago, Illinois.

“We are very pleased with this honor to be named as one of the Giants in the engineering industry” stated Craig Toder, President of Ross & Baruzzini. “This is a testament to the hard work by our staff that is dedicated to the success of our clients. We pride ourselves in taking the most complex building and infrastructure challenges and turning them into a reality that fits the vision of every client we serve.”
